This Arrowtown Photography competition is featuring photos of Arrowtown and the surrounding area. Categories are:

- Best Arrowtown photograph by an amateur photographer
- Best Arrowtown photograph by a professional photographer
- There will be a junior prize for school age or younger

The Grand Prize (for the best amateur or professional photo) is the distinctive trophy created by The Jade and Opal Factory, based in Arrowtown. Prizes to the value of $800 will be presented during the festival.

Entries which close on 31 March are open to amateur and professional photographers. A selection of the best 20 photos will be on display in the foyer of the Lakes District Museum in Arrowtown from Thursday 20 April – Tuesday 25 April. Entry forms are available from info@arrowtown.com or arrowtownfestival@gmail.com.

Conditions of entry:

There are separate amateur and professional sections. Images may not have been previously entered in a competition. Photographers may enter up to four images overall. While photographers retain their rights to the photographs they submit, they acknowledge that in entering them they are giving the Arrowtown Promotion and Business Association (APBA) the right to use the photographs without charge to assist in promoting Arrowtown in any ways the organisation sees fit for one year until April 2018. Entries submitted will be retained by the APBA.

Entries must be submitted before 5pm, 31 March, 2017. Each must be presented in a high resolution readable presentation (ie. stick, disc or by email [preferred option]). Entries will be retained by the APBA. Each electronic copy including emailed entries must be given a title, and identified with the entrant's name, telephone number, and email address.

Submit Entries with the entry form to: info@arrowtown.com, Arrowtown Photography Prize, Sue Patterson 0272 046139
